HURRICANE MICHAEL: FROM ARCHBISHOP AYMOND

If you wish to send a financial gift to those affected by Hurricane Michael, you may send your gift directly to the Archbishop: Archdiocese of New Orleans, 7887 Walmsley Avenue, LA 70125. These gifts will go directly to those most in need.

May Our Lady of Prompt Succor continue to intercede for us and for all those on the Gulf Coast during this Hurricane Season.

FROM FATHER BOZANT

READINGS AT THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS—

In an effort to help you prepare for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, I wish to inform all of you that the readings at the Traditional Latin Mass each Sunday will now be in Latin in accord with Summorum Pontificum and Universae Ecclesiae. On those days when Sacred Ministers are not available to facilitate the readings being sung in Latin, the Mass will be a Solemn Mass without a Deacon or Subdeacon, otherwise known as a Missa Cantata (Sung Mass). Thank you.

MUSIC DONATION OPPORTUNITIES

St. Patrick's has been blessed with a very fine music program and it is our honor to provide the Lord with sacred music fitting for His homage. However, the cost of the music program is not free. In the vestibule of the church, you will find a handout with opportunities to contribute to the music program at St. Patrick's. If you wish to make a donation, please contact Mr. Andrew Mills at spnomusic@gmail.com.

FATHER KLORES UPDATE

Fr. Klores remains in good spirits and is making small improvements in his mobility. He continues to ask for your prayers and assures all of you of his.

COFFEE AND REFRESHMENTS

After the Sunday morning Masses, in the adjacent courtyard directly behind the rectory. Everyone is invited.

PLEASE, NO FOOD OR DRINK, IN THE CHURCH

EVENING OF PRAYER

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Kenner will have an evening of prayer in reparation for sins committed on Halloween. It will begin with the Vigil Mass of All Saints at 6 pm. There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as well as devotions of reparation. It will conclude with Midnight Mass for the Solemnity of All Saints. For more information, please contact Cindy Hemelt (883-5783).

SPOOKY, SCARY, SAINTLY? HOW CATHOLICS CAN SEE HALLOWEEN AT ITS BEST

Whether you dress up as a ghoul, a hero, or a saint, Halloween has a Christian origin that should inspire us to remember our mortality and our redemption in Christ, Bishop David Konderla of Tulsa has said.

“In contrast to popular culture’s observance of Halloween, even the customary appeal to the ‘frightful’ has a devotional meaning in the Catholic tradition. Props such as skulls and scythes have historically recalled our mortality, reminding us to be holy because we are destined for judgment,” the bishop said, citing Hebrews 9:27 and Revelation 14:15. “Visible symbols of death thus represent a reminder of the last things – death, judgment, Heaven, and hell.”

Bishop Konderla discussed the upcoming holiday, which falls before the Nov. 1 feast of All Saints, in a Sept. 28 memorandum on the celebration of Halloween in the Diocese of Tulsa.

Halloween has origins in the Catholic liturgical calendar, he said, but the customs surrounding it have “drifted from the feast’s intended meaning and purpose.” The name itself derives from the archaic English phrase “All Hallows’ Evening,” referring to the Eve of All Saints. Since All Saints can begin with evening prayer the night before, Halloween is the feast’s “earliest possible celebration.”

“While the ‘Gothic’ aspect of Halloween reminds us of Christian teaching about the resurrection of the dead, our culture often represents this in a distorted manner, for when the dead are raised they will in truth be ‘clothed with incorruptibility,’” said Bishop Konderla.

When separated from Catholic teaching, the holiday’s grim, ghoulish, or “Gothic” costumes can be mistaken as “celebration or veneration of evil or of death itself, contradicting the full and authentic meaning of Halloween.”

“For the Christian, Christ has conquered death, as has been prophesied and fulfilled,” he said. “Christ has conquered death by his Passion, Death, and Resurrection, the Paschal Mystery whose graces are evident in the glory of all saints.”

The bishop also discussed the custom of dressing up as Christian saints.

“The custom of dressing up for Halloween is devotional in spirit,” he said. “By dressing up as the saints whom we most admire, we imagine ourselves following their example of Christian discipleship. This practice allows the lay faithful in festive celebration to become ‘living icons’ of the saints, who are themselves ‘icons’ or ‘windows’ offering real-life examples of the imitation of Christ.”

“In dressing up as saints we make Christian discipleship our own in a special way, following the exhortation of St. Paul: ‘Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ,’” he said, citing Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians.

Bishop Konderla invoked the imagery of the saints used in the Book of Revelation.

“Proper veneration of the saints naturally leads to adoration of the Lamb who was slain, whom the saints adore and follow wherever he goes,” he said. “True devotion to the saints, through our prayers and imitation of their witness, leads us sinners back to Christ.”

The bishop also voiced a few warnings. He said it is important to avoid Halloween popularizations of things that are contrary to the Catholic faith. These include the glamorization or celebration of “anything involving superstition, witches, witchcraft, sorcery, divinations, magic, and the occult.”

“We want to be good models of Christian virtue for those we serve and make clear distinctions between that which is good and that which is evil,” he added.

“Let us urge one another this Halloween to express in every detail of our observance the beauty and depth of the Feast of All Saints,” Bishop Konderla concluded.

“Let us make this year’s celebration an act of true devotion to God, whose saints give us hope that we too may one day enter into the Kingdom prepared for God’s holy ones from the beginning of time.”

SAINT PATRICK'S ALL SOULS' DAY REQUIEM MASS

On Friday 2 November at 6:30 p.m. a Solemn Requiem Mass will be celebrated here at St. Patrick's in commemoration of all the faithful departed. The music of the Mass will be the Officium Defunctorum (1605) of Tomás Luis de Victoria, S.J. (1548-1611).

Please plan to join us for this very special act of worship! All are welcome.

Victoria wrote the Officium Defunctorum for the funeral of the Dowager Empress Maria. This work, usually called “Victoria’s Requiem,” is one of the greatest and one of the last works written in the Renaissance polyphonic style. Musicologist and conductor Bruno Turner notes that “Its refined and dignified austerity is shot through with passionate conviction; it glows with extraordinary fervour within a musical and spiritual atmosphere of serenity and fitness for its liturgical purpose. ... [I]t has become revered as well as admired, for it seems to be somehow a Requiem for an Age – the end of Spain’s golden century, the end of Renaissance music, and the last work, indeed, of Victoria himself. At least, he published no more.”

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

All Souls envelopes are now available in the narthex of the church. The names of deceased loved ones should be listed and the envelope delivered to the rectory office, or placed in any collection basket, before All Souls Day, Friday, November 2, 2018. The names will be remembered at all Masses celebrated on All Souls Day and at Masses during the month of November.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SUB TUUM PRAESIDIUM

We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God, despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.
