FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Patrick's Church,

"Natus est vobis hodie Salvator"—"For unto you is born this day a Saviour" (Lk 2:11).

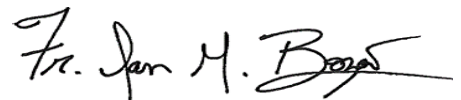

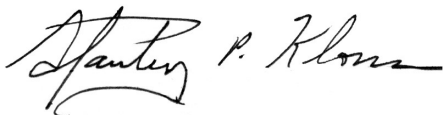

This announcement of the Angels to the shepherds in St. Luke's Holy Gospel pierce to the heart of the mission of the Infant born in the manger in Bethlehem. He is the hope of nations, the prince of peace, the king of kings. Yes, He is all these things, but first and foremost, He is the Saviour. This principal identity flows directly from Who He is—God Himself in the flesh. At the heart of Christmas is the mystery of the Incarnation: the unfathomable mystery of Almighty God taking on human nature in an act of unmitigated love for us, precisely in order to save us. His very name bestowed upon Him by blessed Joseph, foretells His mission as the Archangel Gabriel tells our Lady: "You are to name Him Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins" (Mt. 1:21).

Sadly, though, the darkness of the world and the cunning of the Ancient Foe, Satan, have clouded this fundamental reality. Most importantly, the darkness seeks to stifle the Light by ambiguity about Christ's mission. The mystery of Christmas and the awe of that singular event stem precisely from the reality of Christ's mission as Saviour—the Saviour has entered the world! But the world sees it not, because the world recognizes nothing to be saved from. The message of the Angels to the shepherds is not Good News of great joy because there is no bad news to be rescued from. And this stifling darkness and confusion have crept into the hallowed and sacred halls of our churches and temples. It has crept into the inner recesses of our souls. The result has been the same: a stinging cynicism and lack of true joy because we have lost a sense of true hope that comes from the profound reality that "unto us a child is born who is Christ the Lord!"

All of us, especially in this fateful year, have felt or seen the truth of this and the remedy is the same as it was two thousand years ago: the Child born in a manger. He alone is our hope, the Light of the World that brings clarity as the voice of Truth. As we celebrate in awe and reverence this mystery of a God who enters into our fallen, broken world, we would do well to remember that we must fuel this flame of faith sparked by the entrance of God into our world. By our life of fidelity to the commands of Almighty God and His Holy Church, by our reception of the Sacraments, and by our life of daily prayer, we nourish our faith in this remarkable truth that God is near to those who seek Him. Do not give in to the threat of that darkness. Rekindle your faith in the God who came to dwell among us, in the God who could be held in His mother's arms, in the God whom both lowly shepherds and mighty angels adore.

Here at St. Patrick's, it is our prayer that your experience of our worship of Almighty God here at these Christmas Masses may rekindle that awe deep within you, inflaming you with zeal and the light of faith! We pray that you and your loved ones may experience the true peace and joy of Christmas with your families and your spiritual family here at St. Patrick's, where you will be remembered in all of our Christmas Masses!

Wishing you peace and invoking the blessing of the Word-made-flesh upon you all, we remain
