WELCOME TO OUR NEW BULLETIN!

This weekend, our parish debuts our brand new bulletin! Fr. Bozant made the decision to switch to LPI, a bulletin printing company, to help defray the costs of the bulletin each week as he continues to monitor the expenses of the parish and tries to increase savings in advance of capital expenditures. Fr. Bozant is extremely grateful to all who have generously supported this effort with ads on the back of the bulletin! Please patronize our bulletin sponsors found on the back of the bulletin!

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

Please pray for those preparing for the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony!

STEWARDSHIP

ADVENT/CHRISTMAS DRIVE

This is our final weekend for the Advent/Christmas Drive. The funds collected are used for operational costs, capital expenditures, and our music program. We ask that you please be generous in supporting this effort.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

Part-Time Volunteer Receptionists: Come help for one day a week or one day a month! Call the parish office if you can help.

St. Patrick's Altar Society: Keeping our church beautiful is a team effort. Fr. Bozant is seeking to form a parish Altar Society to take care of linens and help with cleaning/tidying the church. Call the parish office if you can help.

Parish Garden: Our parish grounds needs continual weeding, watering, and care. Call the parish office to lend us your Green Thumb!

Ushers: We are in need of additional ushers at our Masses to help greet the faithful, hand out bulletins, and help with the collection. If you'd like to help, please contact the office!

Bulletin Editor: Fr. Bozant is in need of someone to assist him with editing the bulletin each week. Volunteers who are familiar with Microsoft Publisher should please contact the office!

Coffee and Refreshments: We are in need of volunteers to help with the coffee hours that follow all 3 Sunday morning Masses. If you are able to help set up, clean up, or provide refreshments, please use the sign-up sheets in Reynolds!

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

In the Epiphany, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity was worshiped by foreigners who had been led to Bethlehem, but the Magi knew only that the Holy Child was the long-awaited Messiah. Fast forward to the beginning of that Child's mature ministry, and there it is revealed that he is the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity. Not until He was ascending to Heaven some three years later did He actually name the Trinity, but during the course of those years He gave hints of that triune economy.

The baptism of our Lord was a symbol and not a sacrament because the sacrament of baptism washes away sin, and Christ had no sin. A sacrament actually confers a grace from God, so our Lord's baptism qualifies as a sacramental, which differs from a sacrament in that a sacramental moves the soul to desire the sacraments. There are many sacramentals, and they include holy water, the Rosary, the Liturgy of the Hours, the Brown Scapular, the Miraculous Medal, the Stations of the Cross, the Cross itself, candles, incense, and the Sign of the Cross. Anything blessed would qualify as a sacramental. St. John the Baptist did not use that advanced terminology, but he described it when he said, "I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit" (Mark 1:8).

Various schismatic groups do not make the distinction at all, as they consider baptism symbolic and not efficacious in itself for the remission of sin. Despite this misunderstanding, the Church considers valid any baptism done with water in the name of the Father and Son and Holy Spirit. Conferring a name in baptism signals an intensity in our relationship with God, who "adopts" us as His sons and daughters. Pope Benedict XVI once baptized twenty-one babies in just one month, and said: "Every baptized child acquires the character of the son of God, beginning with their Christian name, an unmistakable sign that the Holy Spirit causes men to be born anew in the womb of the Church." So it is salutary to be careful in choosing names that identify with the great saints who have gone before us. The first pope to change his name upon election was John II in 533. He did so because his father had named him for the pagan god Mercury. The more pagan a culture becomes, the more it lapses into pagan and even downright silly names. There is, however, the hope that the grace of baptism can make even someone burdened with a fashionably pagan name, a saint. Saint John Vianney said, "Not all the saints started well, but all of them ended well."

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
by the Power of God,
cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl throughout the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SUB TUUM PRAESIDIUM

We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God,
despise not our petitions in our necessities,
but deliver us always from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.
