L-le-lú-ia, alle-lú-ia, alle-lú-ia. Repeat: Allelúia.

1. That night th' Apostles met in fear.
But Christ did in their midst appear:
"My peace," He saith, "be on all here." Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

2. When Thomas first the tidings heard,
How they had seen the risen Lord,
He doubted the disciples' word, Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

3. "My piercèd side, O Thomas, see:
My hands, My feet, I shew to Thee:
Not faithless, but believing be." Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

4. No longer Thomas then denied;
He saw the hands, the feet, the side:
"Thou art my Lord and God!" he cried. Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

5. How bless'd are they who have not seen,
And yet whose faith has constant been,
For they eternal life shall win, Alleluia!

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; His love is ev-er-lasting, al-le-lu-ia.

Alleluia:

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

Offertory hymn: There's a wideness in God's mercy

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy, Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice, Which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows Are more felt than up in heav'n;
There is no place where earth's failings Have such kindly judgment giv'n.
2. For the love of God is broader Than the measures of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make His love too narrow By false limits of our own;
And we magnify His strictness With a zeal He will not own.
3. There is plentiful redemption In the Blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members In the sorrows of the Head.
There is grace enough for thousands Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations In that upper home of bliss.

Text: Frederick William Faber, C.O. (1814-1863); Tune: Corvedale, Maurice Bevan (1921-2006)
