STEWARDSHIP

HELP ST. PATRICK'S FROM HOME!

There are small tasks you can do from the comfort of your home that are a great help to our parish. These include: candle wax reclamation, laundering linen, small sewing projects, social media posts and more.

Even if you can't make an extra trip to church during the week, talk to Fr. O'Brien about how you can help from home!

Volunteer forms are in the Narthex.

DONATIONS FOR SPECIAL PROJECTS

$3200—Repair the large bench in the narthex.

This beautiful piece of furniture is the first thing our visitors see, but it is currently a safety hazard with torn covering and exposed metal springs! We have already raised $1125 for this project.

$600—Repainting two signs on the church façade.

Because of the changes in the Mass schedule, the signs need some updating. They have gold leaf lettering and will be updated in a manner that keeps their old-world charm.

Consider donating toward these projects in the name of a loved one!

If you can help, please contact Fr. O'Brien.

I'm thankful to God for the very warm welcome I received on my first weekend as pastor. I truly look forward to getting to know all the parishioners personally! Fr. Roux at St. John the Baptist was so kind to give me an antique lithograph of their patron to commemorate my first weekend.

When a new pastor is named, he is required by canon law to renew his profession of faith and oath of fidelity. To administer these, our local dean, Monsignor John Cisewski, V.F., will concelebrate the 11am Mass on July 21st.

A quick update on the new air conditioning system. At the initiative of Fr. Bozant, we completed an engineering study that analyzes what kind of new equipment will be needed. Now that it is completed, we are in discussions with engineers and contractors who will design and bid on the new system.

We all know the joys of parking near St. Patrick's! If you benefit from the discounted parking at 732 Camp Street (the lot nearest the church to the south) please let me know! Our agreement with Premier Parking is in need of review and I want to make sure our parishioners are utilizing the savings. If too few parishioners benefit, we may have to discontinue the agreement and end the discount. So, please inform the office if you use the discounted rate there.

There are some projects that I consider immediate needs for improvement. See the box in the "Stewardship" column for details on how you can contribute to the Mass times sign on the facade, and the Narthex bench reupholstery.

Serious cleaning and repainting was needed in the priest and guest quarters of the rectory. Due to old water intrusion the ceilings had stained, the window frames were partially raw wood and the plaster walls had become damaged. In addition, there were cracks in the walls and the floors were worn down to raw wood in many places. But, after the dozens of hours given by volunteers, as well as monetary gifts, this preservation work is nearing completion. The material and labor donated have amounted to a value of well over $10,000. By God's providence, no parish money has been needed thus far. My sincere gratitude to those who have volunteered their time: Connie Holden, Dan and Liz Fitzpatrick, Dean Meredith, Tom Bruno, Antonio Cercena, Simon Templet, Curtis Zuckerman, Philip Miller, Thomas Watson, III, Finn, Sebastian, and Patrick O'Sullivan, Matthew Theriot and others! Moreover, the newly-formed men's club and Kimberly Krause have aided in the repainting of Reynold's Hall.

May St. Joseph, the workman, win many favors for you from his divine Son!
~ Fr. O'Brien
