SERVITE DOMINO IN TIMORE

The Lord is at work in many ways in our parish, there is no doubt about that! One of those ways is how St. Patrick's is fostering vocations to the priesthood. As Fr. Bozant announced earlier this summer, two of our parishioners will begin their seminary studies for the Archdiocese of New Orleans this fall. Please support them by your prayers and sacrifices so that they may know the will of God with clarity!

In addition to those, another parishioner, Mr. Curtis Zuckerman, is beginning his discernment for the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Financial needs are considerable, and the Fraternity requires seminarians to contribute financially for the cost of their own studies. Mr. Zuckerman is looking to fellow parishioners for support. Please take a minute to meet him (if you haven't yet) and hear more about his discernment. He will be greeting parishioners after the Masses on the weekend of July 25th. I enthusiastically support his efforts—Mr. Zuckerman has been a very devout parishioner for years. He generously serves multiple Masses each weekend and is a leader among the members of our Altar Guild. I hope you can help him with your prayers, but also with a financial contribution.

It was a real blessing to have so much help during the recent open house for White Linen Night. So many revelers were touched by the beauty of our church and uplifted by the warm hospitality of our parishioners. There must have been 75-100 visitors who accepted our invitation for a church tour and refreshments. Praise God for such a successful evening of evangelization!

Several parishioners have sent their suggestions for works and improvements to our parish. Some of these are listed in this week's bulletin, under "Corporal Works of Mercy." Please take a look and contact me with your ideas!

With a generous donation, I was able to have one of our antique chasubles restored. Over the years, the crewel work embroidery had rubbed away in places. Now this richly floral chasuble is ready for many more decades of use at God's holy Altar!

-Fr. O'Brien
