PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
by the Power of God,
cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl throughout the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Next week, I hope to have a thorough update in the bulletin regarding our parish financials now that we've reached the mid-point of our fiscal year. The initial results of our Advent Appeal for St. Patrick's and Annual Appeal for St. John the Baptist indicate that our parishioners have again proven their generosity. For that I am deeply grateful to God.

This week, I'd like to continue to reflect on the prayers of the Roman Canon. Last week I began with the Te igitur, or first prayer. Today we reflect on the Memento, or remembrance of the living.

Memento, Domine, Remember, Lord, your famulorum, famularumque servants N. and N. and all tuarum N. et N. et omnium gathered here, whose faith and circumstantium, quorum tibi devotion are known to you. fides cognita est et nota For them, we offer you this devotio, pro quibus tibi sacrifice of praise or they offer offerimus: vel qui tibi offerunt it for themselves and all who hoc sacrificium laudis, pro se are dear to them: for the suisque omnibus: pro redemption of their souls, in redemptione animarum hope of health and well-being, suarum, pro spe salutis et and paying their homage to incolumitatis suae: tibi que you, the eternal God, living reddunt vota sua aeterno Deo, and true. vivo et vero.

Notice that as the Canon began, we first prayed for the Church. Our very next prayer brings to God our plea for the God's "servants." The prayer seems to intend to win God's grace for those who already acknowledge Christ as their Lord. The rubrics of the Mass instruct the priest to pause in silence at this point. In that moment, he calls to mind as many of the faithful (present or absent) as he intends to pray for. Of course, especially at this moment, it is vital for the whole congregation to bring to God all those for whom they pray. Uniting your prayer to the prayer of the priest is a sure way to authentic active participation!

St. Albert reflects that the progression of intercessions in the Canon make explicit for us the various levels of communion which the Mass makes possible. Communion among men begins with God's holy people united around the hierarchy (for whom the Te igitur intercedes). Communion then spreads to all the faithful (as we see in the Memento), then to the saints in the subsequent prayer, then ultimately to Christ who arrives in our midst at the consecration. Calling to mind the levels of communion reminds us that in the Mass we are not alone, but sacramentally joined to all of God's family regardless of the limits of physical space.

Very interestingly, notice the continued use of "offering" language. In the Canon we are approaching God not empty handed, but with a sacrifice to plead our cause. At this point, of course, the sacrifice is still bread and wine. Nonetheless this prayer is the first of several which makes it clear that the whole community brings the offering when the priest prays, "For them, we offer you this sacrifice of praise or they offer it for themselves." This is a perfect exemplification of how the ordained priesthood (the Mass celebrant) is ordered toward leading the baptismal priesthood (all the faithful). The Holy Mass is not a "spectator sport" for the faithful! Indeed, it is a true exercise of the baptismal priesthood! ~ Fr. O'Brien
