BOOK STUDY ON THE MASS

A lay theology student from Notre Dame Seminary will soon offer a book study on the Mass just for our parish. The study will consider aspects of history, liturgical theology, liturgical spirituality and both forms of the Roman Rite.

Due to developments in the health crisis, we are uncertain when the study will start, but in order to tailor the course, gauge interest, and select a good time for the meetings, please express your interest by e-mailing our parish apostolate coordinator, Mrs. Megan Coote, at mcoote@arch-no.org

Many thanks to Mr. Anthony Bueche for making this possible.

IN HOME MARRIAGE PREPARATION MENTOR COUPLE

If you are a parishioner of St. Patrick's Parish and are interested in being a parish Mentor Couple for our couples preparing for the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony, please contact the office to see if there are any openings. The Office of Marriage and Family Life will host a training for the In Home Marriage Preparation program for couples in our parish who are interested in serving as mentors for engaged couples preparing for marriage. The training will be held at Notre Dame Seminary in the Pastoral Center on Saturday, August 29, from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. Once approved, we will register you for the training.

ROSARY PRAYERS FOR THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY AND THOSE WHO HAVE DIED FROM COVID19

All parishioners are invited to pray a Rosary on behalf of the Souls in Purgatory and those lost to Covid19 as often as possible.

This Rosary may be said for your dear departed family members, friends, or anyone, even those who are unknown to you, as you wish to include in this Act of Charity.

Not only will you be performing a work of mercy for these souls, but they will pray for you!

Thank you for sharing in this special gift to all of the "Holy Souls in Purgatory".

Ever since the early Church, several ranks, or orders, had been formed for the service of God's people. These orders quickly developed into a hierarchical system whereby men pursuing the priesthood would gain experience as they attained the higher orders and received sacred ordination as a priest. As early as the year 251, Eusebius in his Church History records the number of those who occupied these ranks for the city of Rome. In time, these orders were divided into two categories: major orders and minor orders. The minor orders were porter, exorcist, lector and acolyte. The major orders were subdeacon, deacon and priest. It was in this context that the Mass developed into what is seen when one attends the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite.

After the Second Vatican Council, Pope Paul VI authorized a reform of the Mass. This reform shifted some roles that had been reserved to those in major and minor orders to the lay faithful. With this reform came a significant reorganization of the major and minor orders. In 1973, in his document Ministerium quaedam, Pope Paul VI suppressed the minor orders and the major order of subdeacon. He replaced these with two ministries which are now proper to lay men, namely lector and acolyte. These ministries are unique because they are typically conferred in special ceremonies presided over by the bishop where the lay man is instituted as a lector and acolyte.

There is special reason for this little history lesson! Since St. Patrick's has long offered the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite, and we have done so with great solemnity, I petitioned Archbishop Aymond to allow St. Patrick's instituted acolytes for a very specific reason. Part of Pope Paul's reform was to attribute the duties of subdeacon to those who have received the ministry of acolyte. Therefore, there has been a long standing custom whereby those who have received the ministry of acolyte may perform the liturgical functions of subdeacon. However, since an acolyte is not a cleric, they are not permitted to wear clerical attire, such as the biretta. Also to show that they are not ordained, they will not wear the maniple, other actions at the altar are not permitted of them.

There are two main reasons Archbishop Aymond granted my rather uncommon request. First, he intends for St. Patrick's to maintain our high level of liturgical solemnity, secondly, he wants to provide me the additional help that will allow me more time for sacramental ministry such as hearing confessions and distributing Holy Communion. The three men he has authorized as new acolytes have been involved with St. Patrick's for many years. They have shown dedication to the liturgy and care for our sacred worship. With some additional training, you'll soon see them on the altar in their new role.

Please congratulate Mr. Bobby Ramirez, Mr. Keith Marino, and Mr. Corey Keiper on their institution to the lay ministry of acolyte. This service will be exercised just at our extraordinary form Masses, it does not entail an additional administrative role at our parish or in the archdiocese. This kind gesture of support from Archbishop Aymond will allow me more flexibility and help to beautify our liturgies. As with any call to service, it is not an achievement or a promotion, but it is humiliation (in the best sense). Ministry in the Church at any level is a way to lower oneself in imitation of Christ and become a servant of all.

~ Fr. O'Brien

NOTRE DAME SEMINARIAN SUMMER GATHERING

The Seminarian Summer Gathering will take place on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, through Friday, August 7, 2020, please pray for them and their vocation.

Prayer for Seminarians

Father, thank You for the generosity of our seminarians. Safeguard them as they prepare for the priesthood.

Keep all evil far from them, so they may become strong Christian men who are faithful to prayer, diligent in their studies, open to spiritual direction, and docile to all aspects of seminary formation.

Above all, enflame their hearts with love so they will be ardent and gentle shepherds for Your Church.

We make this prayer through the great High Priest, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

St. Charles Borromeo, patron of seminarians, pray for us.
