A Journey in Faith Book Study on The Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Book: The Latin Mass Explained by Msgr. George J. Moorman

Details: Each session of the study will consist of two partner components. The call of God which is then ritual, history, development, and knowledge we can come to know about the Extraordinary Form. The second aspect is the response. What is it about these profound truths that affect us and point to our own understanding of God and our lives within the Church.

When: The first session will be held on Wednesday, August 26th at 7:00 P.M. We are anticipating 5 sessions. Anyone interested in attending virtually, please contact the office.

Where: The rectory – we will be maintaining social distance

Materials: Books are available for a donation. We suggest bringing your Daily Roman Missal with you to each session.

STEWARDSHIP

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR, HASTEN TO HELP US

Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during these current times and the hurricane season.

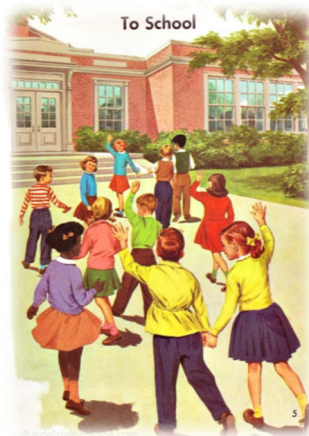

Please protect us, our family, our homes and businesses from all disasters, especially those of nature.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. ~ Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THE START OF THE SCHOOL YEAR AS WE RETURN TO SCHOOL

Please pray for all administrators, teachers, and catechists as they prepare for the 2020-21 school year. Their commitment to our Catholic Schools, Parish Schools of Religion and all of their students is greatly appreciated.

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart; you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school we implore your mercy: bless the students, teachers, and staff of our Catholic schools that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge; deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways; and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need. Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever. †Amen

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

After a restful vacation, I'm happy to be back with you all at God's altar. I'm so grateful to Fr. Melcher and the other priests who filled in for me to provide for our parish's sacramental needs while I was away. May God reward them! The reorganization of the archdiocese has delayed my publication of our parish's annual financial report, but I hope to have it ready by the middle of September. Particularly, during the hardships of the pandemic; I'd like to, again, express my sincere gratitude to all those who have continued to be generous to our parish collections during this time. Your dedication is a vivid reminder of God's goodness!

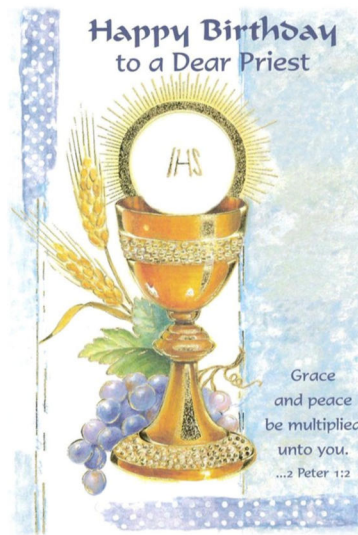

Allow me to continue my reflections on the Roman Canon with the 2nd prayer which follow the consecration:

Supra quæ propitio ac sereno Be pleased to look upon these vultu respicere digneris: et accepta offerings with a serene and kindly habere, sicuti accepta habere countenance, and to accept them, dignatus es munera pueri tui iusti as once you were pleased to Abel, et sacrificium Patriarchæ accept the gifts of your servant nostri Abrahæ, et quod tibi obtulit Abel the just, the sacrifice of summus sacerdos tuus Abraham, our father in faith, and Melchisedech, sanctum the offering of your high priest sacrificium, immaculatam Melchizedek, a holy sacrifice, a hostiam. spotless victim.

As I mentioned in my last reflection about the prayer following the consecration, the Unde et memores recalls all the merits of Christ and then explicitly connects the Sacrament of the Altar to the power Christ's self-oblation. Continuing that same theme, the Supra quæ, recalls that making an offering to God has been the activity of God's people ever since the beginning. Abel, of course, was the son of Adam and Eve whose offering to God was the choice portion of his flock. The animal sacrifice of Abel prefigures the immolation of First Born of All Creation, Jesus Christ. God favored Abel's offering because, unlike Cain's, it was made generously from the first fruits. This favor of God sparked Cain's jealousy and resulted in fratricide. The patriarch Abraham made several offerings to God, but his most notable was his willingness to sacrifice his only son at God's command. We know that God held back Abraham's hand at the last moment, but gave this instruction to Abraham so that he may prove his righteousness. Abraham's loving obedience to God is a prefiguration of our Heavenly Father's kindness in offering His only Son for our salvation. The offering of Melchizedek is a hallmark of the Old Testament and is shrouded in mystery. Melchizedek's origins are unknown, but when he appears, he comes as a priest offering bread and wine to God. He prefigures Christ both in his mysterious priestly origins and in the fact that Christ offered bread and wine to God making it His Body and Blood.

Just as the Unde et memores recalls the merits of Christ as we make our offering to the Father, so too does the Supra quæ recall the deeds of the Old Testament beseeching the Father's favor. These two prayers, then, give us the whole picture: the true essence of Judeo-Christian worship is that we should make an offering to God. In the Old Testament, that offering was there mere work of our own sinful hands. But now, in Christ, we can make an offering to God far beyond our own capacity. For this reason, we stand audaciously, but confidently before the Father to ask for His favor upon us.

The emphasis upon offering and sacrifice that we see in the Canon is a much needed reminder to us that the purpose of the Mass (and of a life of spirituality in general) is not primarily to receive from God. Rather, in imitation of the life of Christ, the apex of our life of faith is to unite ourselves to Christ and make ourselves an offering to God. Such a surrender to the Most High is the most liberating act of love we can undertake. It is exemplified for us by Christ, and it will be the unending joy of the saved in eternal life. ~ Fr. O'Brien

A PRAYER FOR ALL BELOVED PRIESTS

Pray for Fathers O'Brien, Roux, Farge, Saunders, Klores, Bozant & Melcher

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep Thy priests within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart, where none may touch them.

Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Thy Sacred Body.

Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Thy Precious Blood.

Keep pure and unworldly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood.

Let Thy Holy Love surround them from the world's contagion.

Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and their everlasting crown hereafter.

Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us: obtain for us numerous and holy priests.

† Amen
