FAMILY Formation

SACRAMENT PREPARATION

For families with a child preparing for First Holy Communion, St. Patrick's will be starting a new catechesis program called Family Formation. It is a wonderful program that places emphasis on parents as the first, most impactful, teachers of our faith. If you would like more information see site below or contact Megan Coote in the parish office. We anticipate beginning in January 2021.

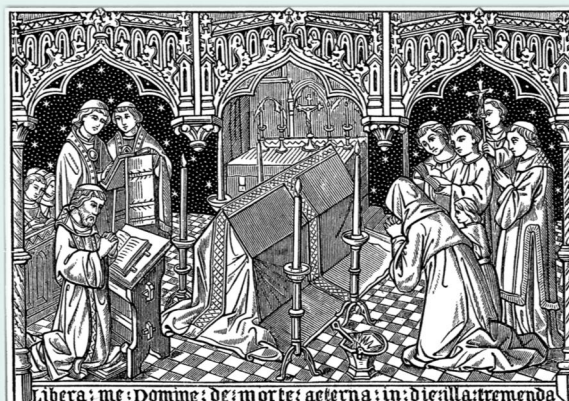

<https://www.familyformation.net/>

"Through our unique catechesis model, Family Formation equips parents to pass on the Catholic Faith to their children, and grow in their faith together as a family."

REQUIEM MASS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2020 AT 6:30 P.M.

On this occasion, we will pray for the eternal repose of one of our faithful ushers, Mr. Tim Pickles. He passed away on April 3, 2020, and only had a small funeral due to the pandemic.

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

"The communion between God and His people finds its definite fulfillment in Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom who loves and gives Himself as the Savior of humanity, uniting it to Himself as His body."

Familiaris consortio #13

(The Fellowship of the Family-Encyclical by St.

Pope John Paul II)

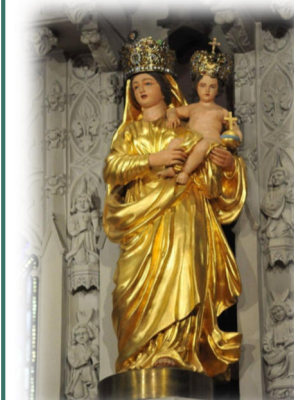

Do we allow our hearts to be one intimately with Christ? Do we allow him so near to our hearts that he can unite himself to us, carrying our burdens, our anxieties? Or, do we resist, apprehensive to release our wounds? May the Lord help us, as the church, to better understand His intimate love as our Bridegroom and help us to be a more perfect spouse by revealing the totality of our souls to Him whom we love.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION DURING HURRICANE SEASON

Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during these current times and the hurricane season.

Please protect us, our family, our homes and businesses from all disasters, especially those of nature.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

Please take a moment to review the annual financial report that I compiled. Copies can be found in the back of church. In it, I sought to simplify our full financial report so that parishioners could more easily see the general categories of income and expense. Also, with the advise of the Finance Council, I incorporated some more sophisticated accounting tools into the management of our long-term assets. This is particularly relevant to our new air conditioning system and other capital improvement projects that we will take on in the near future. Another change this year, is that St. John the Baptist and St. Patrick's have separate financial statements. St. John the Baptist proved itself to be able to operate independent of St. Patrick's subsidies. For this we are grateful and hopeful for a long future. My letter in the annual report tries to cover a lot of ground in a little space, so please, as always, feel free to raise any financial questions with me.

I just received news that the Ancient Order of Hibernians has chosen St. Patrick's as the beneficiary of their annual charity auction. They hope to raise up to $35,000 to benefit our upcoming restoration work on the church exterior. I will be posting more information on our website about their efforts in the coming weeks. Let us thank God for the kindness of these faithful Irish Catholic men!

We are very blessed to welcome Mrs. Melissa Mandella to our parish staff. She has accepted the position to serve as our parish bookkeeper. Mrs. Mandella is well experienced with various levels of responsibility in accounting work. She has been at the service of other Catholic institutions in our area as well. With the help of Mrs. Jan Merington, our former office manager, she has already been hard at work to facilitate a smooth transition. I'm so grateful for her willingness to join our team. Certainly, it will be our joy to get to know her and to make her and her family feel at home. ~Fr. O'Brien

To: Clergy, Religious & Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Today, throughout the Catholic Church, we celebrate Catechetical Sunday with the theme of "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you."

This is a special observance in each parish as we pray for and ask God's blessings upon all those who share in the important work of catechesis and Christian formation. Those who share in this ministry are our catechists in the Parish School of Religion, the administrators and teachers in our Catholic Schools, youth ministers and those who are involved in the ministry of RCIA. Please join me in thanking them for not only giving of themselves in a generous way to provide religious education and formation for our youth and adults, but also pray that God will continue to bless them and inspire them in their ministry. They give of themselves in a generous way to help others open their hearts to Christ. Furthermore, their example of faith is one that can be a source of inspiration to us.

Join me in praying for students, parents and families on this Catechetical Sunday. We are reminded that parents are the primary teachers of their children in faith and we pray for them that they will joyfully fulfill this vocation. I invite parents involved to continue this involvement in the education and Christian formation of their children. Parents, they need you, your support, and they need your example of living out your faith. You are a powerful witness to your child.

Please know of my deep appreciation and prayer of thanksgiving to all of you who share in this important ministry of catechesis and Christian formation.

Wishing you God's blessings, and with the assurance of my prayers, I am

Gratefully in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans
