SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

This week, the traditional calendar of the Roman Rite celebrates the feast of Christ the King. This feast was transferred to the last Sunday of Ordinary Time in the post-conciliar English calendar. In light of this great feast, allow me to share with you the reason that Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925. The following is an excerpt from his encyclical Quas primas. ~ Fr. O'Brien

A REMEDY AGAINST THE HERESY OF OUR DAY

"It is Our duty now to minister to the needs of the present day and to provide an effective remedy against the plague that has corrupted modern society. That plague is secularism, with its errors and its impious activities, and to combat it We ordain the special worship of Christ Our King by the whole Catholic world. That pest, as you know, Venerable Brethren, has not grown up in one day, but it has been long nurtured in the heart of governments. The beginning was in the rejection of the rule of Christ over the public life of nations. Men denied the right of the Church, given by Christ Himself, to teach mankind, to make laws, to govern her own people in their religious life, to lead them to their eternal happiness. Then, little by little, the true religion came to be assimilated to false religions, and to be put on the same level with them; it was made subject to the civil power and given over to the whims of princes and rulers. Some went even further, and wished to substitute for the religion of Christ some form of natural religion, or mere sentiment. Some governments even thought that they could do without God, and made their religion consist in impiety and contempt for Him.

"We deplored the bitter fruits of this revolt from Christ in men and States in Our Encyclical, "Ubi Arcano," and, still, We deplore them. Everywhere the seeds of discord are sown, the fires of hatred and of fierce rivalry between nations are fanned, and the restoration of peace after the war has been long delayed. On all sides is cupidity unrestrained, concealing itself often under the mask of patriotism and the general good, with its accompaniment of discord amongst the people and a blind and boundless selfishness which looks for nothing but private advantage, and measures everything by personal gain. The bitter fruits of this heresy are seen, too, in the ruin of domestic peace, when men have forgotten or neglected -their duty in the home; the union and stability of the family are undermined—society, in a word, is shaken to its foundations and threatened with ruin.

"But we have the strongest hope that the annual celebration of the Feast of Christ Our King will hasten the return of the world to its Divine Savior; and it is the duty of every Catholic to hasten that return still more with his own active efforts. Many, it is true, have not that place in society, or that authority, which should belong to those who bear the torch of truth. This disadvantage of good souls is to be attributed, in some measure, to the timidity or the ignorance of men who will not stand up against evil, or who only weakly resist it. So the enemies of the Church necessarily become bolder in their rash attacks.

"But if the faithful understood that it is their duty always to fight bravely under the royal banner of Christ, they would set alight in themselves the fire of apostles, A Catholic and strive to win back to their Master the Crusade, hearts of the ignorant and of those who are estranged from Him, and they would use every effort to maintain His rights inviolate.

"Moreover, the universal celebration of this yearly solemnity will do much to make men realize, and in some way supply for, the revolt from Christ which secularism has brought about with results so disastrous to society. While national councils and parliaments, by their unworthy silence, insult the holy name of our Redeemer, we should all the more openly acclaim it, and more widely assert the rights of the royal dignity of Christ and His authority."

O Lord and our God,
JESUS CHRIST, You have given to your priests a sacred vocation; purify them, sanctify them, strengthen them. May the gift of your grace renew them day after day. May Your holy angels guard and protect them.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, our Mother and Mother of the priests, pray for us.

We Are Praying For Priests !!!

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

"When they become parents, spouses receive from God the gift of a new responsibility. Their parental love is called to become for the children the visible sign of the very love of God, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named."

"It must not be forgotten however that, even when procreation is not possible, conjugal life does not for this reason lose its value. Physical sterility in fact can be for spouses the occasion for other important services to the life of the human person, for example, adoption, various forms of educational work, and assistance to other families and to poor or handicapped children."

Saint John Paul II
Familiaris Consortio

Despite what our current vocation calls us to in this season of life, may we always remember the magnificent gift of children. Whether they biologically belong to us or not, we must fulfill the call to love and serve them as the precious members of the Body that they are. May we find the courage to defend life from conception until death and we humbly ask our Blessed Mother to intercede for us in this great battle.

Love Life.  Vote Yes.

Louisiana Pro-Life Amendment Coalition Vote YES on the pro-life amendment to the Louisiana Constitution!

In Louisiana, we love babies and their mothers. Sadly, 13 other states have protected abortion in their state constitutions. By passing the Love Life Amendment, we will protect life by making sure there is no right to abortion or the funding of abortion in the Louisiana Constitution.

The Love Life Amendment will be on the ballot on Tuesday, November 3, 2020, the same day as the Presidential election.

Vote YES on 11/3/2020!
