SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Now that the Christmas Season has arrived, I would be remiss if I failed to thank all the parishioners who helped in so many ways to make our celebration of Christmas a truly beautiful event. All the beauty in this world would not satisfy what is justly due to our newly-incarnate King. But, our offering, meager as it may be, must strive to reach the heights because it is our offering of love!

Yes, in our day, we rightly welcome the arrival of Christ with beauty and extravagance. But we know well that in the day of our Lord's birth, no man welcomed him besides Mary Immaculate and Joseph the just. The welcome they offered him was fitting in its own way, for they had prepared their hearts to welcome Him, whom earth and heaven cannot contain! Moved by their example, on this feast of the Holy Family and let us observe the outward solemnities of our Christmas celebration in a way that transforms our inner life.

Learning from Mary and Joseph as they welcomed the Christ-child stirs the hearts of husbands and wives to be generous in welcoming new children into their families. Learning from the Holy Family helps us to see family life as an arena of grace where opportunities for holiness abound. Welcoming the Christ-child like Mary and Joseph moves us toward generosity in pro-life efforts as well as charities that support families suffering any need. Welcoming the Christ-child expands our hearts toward families who faithfully occupy our church pews while coping their best with restless children! May these parents be blessed by God for their efforts! May these parents be warmly supported and encouraged by us! These are just a few of the graces available to us in this Christmas season.

Below, please reflect on the image of the Holy Family by Michelangelo. Notice how ordinary the scene is, just a moment when a father passes a small child to his mother. But to the eye of faith, this scene is filled with deep adoration and the purest of love. Merry Christmas! ~ Fr. O'Brien

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

“Do not be afraid;
for behold, I proclaim to you good news
of great joy
that will be for all the people.
For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.
And this will be a sign for you:
you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes
and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:10-12

We rejoice! The angel says "Do not be afraid." As our Savior enters into the lowliness that is humanity, we must never fear the world again. We shall not fear the criticism, the inconveniences, the sufferings that this world promises. We shall remain steadfast in faith, with indebted hearts, we continue to worship our King this Christmas season - always remembering it is not merely a culmination of shopping, baking, and wrapping. Instead, Christmas marks our souls made new; our souls made fearless and our souls made for Him.
