"O Death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory? Christ is risen, and you are overthrown. Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen. Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ is risen, and life reigns. Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave. For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto ages of ages."

THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

This past Holy Week, we have walked with our Lord in His passion and death. And now, as we follow the foot steps of Mary Magdalene, we too return to the tomb to be witnesses of the miracle of miracles. The Gospel of John tells us that even before dawn, once the Sabbath had concluded, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to care for the body of Christ. While so many experienced the passion of Christ as a stumbling block, or even a definitive moment where hope in Christ's message was lost, still something stirred within Mary Magdalene. She could not abandon the Lord even as he laid in the tomb.

Was it her faith in the words and prediction that He would rise? Was is her affection for Christ and her desire to honor his worldly remains? Why did she return to the tomb when so many left? Didn't she know that a stone and guards would be waiting for her when she arrived? Surely, her motive was her love for Christ; she had a love that stirred supernatural hope in her soul. Once she acted on that love, and arrived at the tomb, her love was greatly rewarded. She was privileged to become the apostle to the Apostles—because of her unshakeable love, she was allowed to bring the news of the Resurrection to the others.

How many times do we shy away from the tombs of our life? We might feel that our sufferings only bring us a kind of death. But Christ has a miracle of new life waiting. Today, the day of the Resurrection, we must stir up our love for the Lord and return to that tomb, return to our cross, return to our battle with renewed hope. Just like Mary Magdalen if we go back there in love, we too will be witnesses to the power of God who can bring life where only death existed! In this Easter season, the greatest grace we can ask for is not to be relieved from our crosses, but to be like Christ as we carry them. If we do this, then the power of God is active within us to bring victory from defeat, light from darkness, and love from suffering! ~Fr. O'Brien
