St. Michael the Archangel,

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

This week at St. Patrick's there was a lot to celebrate! We were happy to host the Hibernians and Archbishop Aymond for their annual St. Patrick's Day Mass. We pray that next year we can invite more people to join in the festivities, but this year the crowd size had to be limited. In addition, many thanks to those who participated in our parish celebration in the evening of the 17th. Our volunteers who prepared the dinner and refreshments went above and beyond in honor of our patron saint!

We are blessed to carry on the tradition of the St. Joseph Altar. While we scaled it down this year, the show of devotion was still abundant! My sincere thanks to our many volunteers who worked to honor the foster father of Christ!

Last Sunday, Archbishop Aymond awarded the St. Louis Medallion to over 200 of the faithful from around the Archdiocese. This award acknowledges generosity of service to the Church. The winners from our parish are quiet heroes without whom we could not continue to function! Mr. Lance and Mrs. Lori Templet continue to dedicate their hard work to support our parish in multiple ways. From helping with the maintenance of our facility, to single-handedly orchestrating receptions and socials, to encouraging their children to be active contributors to the life of the parish, this couple is always giving of themselves! They really are the last ones to seek recognition, but on this special occasion, from my heart, I am grateful for their selfless dedication! This year we recognize Mr. John and Mrs. Jude Lee from St. John the Baptist Church. The Lee's are more recent additions to the St. John family, however, they have quickly made it their home. By offering their hard work and expertise, St. John is looking spotless! Their hard work and generosity of time has already made a great impact. Thank you!

Today begins Holy Week. It is the apex of our liturgical calendar as well as the celebration of the core of our faith: Christ's passion, death and resurrection. Our servers and musicians have been preparing, and our candidates and catechumen are ready for the sacraments of initiation. I hope you can join us for these solemn celebrations. These liturgies will include processions through the aisles of the church. Many months ago, I suspended processions to prevent transmission of COVID. However, since the vaccine has become available, and transmission rates are under control, I am planning to reinstate our liturgical processions. Also, since the trends are improving, I believe it is also a good time to ask all those who attend the Extraordinary Form Masses to resume reception of Holy Communion exclusively on the tongue. This posture is required by the rubrics of the Latin Mass, but an exception had been made for the early phase of the pandemic. If you feel unsafe receiving on the tongue, please reach out to me so that I can best accommodate your needs! Reception of Holy Communion at the English Masses continues to be available upon the tongue or in the hand. ~Fr. O'Brien

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

"We give glory to you, Lord, who raised up your cross to span the jaws of death like a bridge by which souls might pass from the region of the dead to the land of the living. ..You are incontestably alive. Your murderers sowed your living body in the earth as farmers sow grain, but it sprang up and yielded an abundant harvest of men raised from the dead."

—Saint Ephrem the Syrian
