ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. †Amen.

HURRICANE PRAYER

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.

†Amen

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

To begin, congratulations are in order! Among our parishioners are graduated high school seniors who will soon be headed off to college. To them, I extend my prayers—we are very proud of their good work and faith! Also, congratulations to Rev. Cassian Edwards, OSB, who will celebrate a Solemn Mass of the Thanksgiving. He was a parishioner of St. Patrick's from his youth and was ordained to the priesthood last May and now we have the opportunity to celebrate with him next Sunday at 9:15 a.m.

This week, I have the pleasure of relaying to you another excerpt from a parishioner addressing what they appreciate about the Traditional Latin Mass. Regarding mystery, he writes,

"There is nothing wrong with Mass being a little weird and unlike everything else in our lives....The TLM preserves and celebrates sacred mystery, in a way that is spiritually nourishing.... Everything we know about human encounters with God, whether in sacred scripture or in private revelation, is characterized by mystery. It is precisely the element of mystery that moves us to adoration, so that any encounter with God that's stripped of mystery can only be regarded as untruthful, inauthentic, unreal -- a failed encounter. In short, insofar as the Mass has any emotional effect, it ought to shake us up and take us out of our comfort zone. It should prod us to ponder, to consider what's wrong with us, and how only God can fix it. It's OK for the TLM to feel like stepping into another world -- not hostile, but awesome and entirely different from what we are accustomed to."

By inviting us to ponder divine mysteries, God elevates the mind and the soul. By incorporating verticality into our prayer, our ritual and even our architecture, the Holy Mass makes tangible heavenly realities.

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

"If the heart wanders or is distracted, bring it back to the point quite gently and replace it tenderly in its Master's presence. And even if you did nothing during the whole of your hour but bring your heart back and place it again in Our Lord's presence, though it went away every time you brought it back, your hour would be very well employed."

-St. Francis de Sales

As we move through this Year of the Eucharist, I have continued to focus my gaze on Christ in the Eucharist by increasing time in adoration. I have been striving to exercise my "still muscle." I recently heard a friar talk about this "muscle." He explained that in our hyper-stimulated, world we often struggle to retreat and rest with Jesus. He went on to say that it takes true work and perseverance to enter into the stillness and allow our minds to be filled with Him alone. It is like the muscles we use to run, jump, or even walk: we must exercise, stretch, and practice using those muscles. It is the same for our interior life- we must practice stillness. Even with distraction, lack of self-discipline, and constraints on our time, let us resolve to continue resting in Him in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
