OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR,
HASTEN TO HELP US

Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during these current times and the hurricane season.

Please protect us, our family, our homes and businesses from all disasters, especially those of nature.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. ~ Amen.

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

In the month of October, we honor Our Lady through her rosary. I will be humbly reflecting on the rosary as we continue to cherish this great devotion in the coming weeks. This week I have selected an excerpt on praying the rosary as a family from the Pontifical Council for the Family.

"The wave of secularization that has swept through the life of our communities in recent decades has brought a deep crisis, even in the context of the family, and hence in family prayer as an expression of communion and an indispensable source for the mission the family is called to carry out in the Church and in society."

"Confronted by this disturbing situation, pastors in recent centuries have not ceased to recommend the devout practice of the Rosary, which Pope Pius XII described as "the compendium of the entire Gospel", to implore the Lord, giver of all good things, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin, Queen of the Rosary, for the gifts of faith and peace in families and among nations."

-Card. Alfonso Lopez Trujillo

May we ponder this in our hearts just as Our Lady. Let us pray the rosary as a family as often as possible, letting go of expectations, always knowing Our Lady will show up for us – in the great and in the small through her beautiful fiat!

~Megan Coote

 SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Please take a moment to notice that our parish has several special events on the calendar during the rest of the month of October. Our monthly Requiem Mass will be held on the 12th. Then, St. Patrick's own Simon Templett will offer a recital on 17th. Those who attend are assured to experience a memorable afternoon of remarkable organ music. Earlier that same day, all are welcome to a presentation in our rectory about a new Catholic college in Maryland which caters to the Latin Mass faithful. At the end of the month, our 9:15 a.m. Mass congregation will celebrate the Feast of Christ the King along with the annual Consecration of Humanity to Christ the King. Please note the Mass will begin at 9 a.m.

Uniquely this year, the Latin Mass feast of Christ the King, the Feast of All Saints and the Commemoration of All Souls form a true "triduum" since these occurs in perfect sequence. All three days will be observed solemnly here at St. Patrick's. Doing so is a unique way to observe the kingship of Christ over those on Earth, in Heaven and in Purgatory respectively. For the solemn occasion of All Saints day, our musicians have been preparing a special setting of the Mass texts. The polyphonic music setting is composed by Tomás Luis de Victoria (1548-1611). On that same day, we will also have the opportunity to welcome back Fr. Albert Jerome Mott, a newly ordained priest from the Diocese of Tyler. He was no stranger to us during his time at Notre Dame Seminary. Then, All Souls Day will be observed with the timeless Gregorian chant settings of the Requiem Mass. Entering the richness of liturgical life that our Catholic faith offers is well-worth the extra effort! I hope to see you there!

Please take a moment this week to review the yearly financial report. Like the previous two years, I have condensed our parish financial information for our parishioners. I hope that my efforts in composing this report can help you to understand how important your contributions are and the great efforts that we take to make the best use of those gifts. St. Patrick's is blessed with many generous benefactors which enables us to accomplish a lot of good. Our efforts preserve the rich heritage of art, architecture, music and faith which we have inherited. In addition, we are able to take on new ventures to better catechize our parish children and offer opportunities for all ages to grow in love for Christ. As always, I welcome your comments and questions regarding our parish finances. Feel free to reach out to me by phone, e-mail or in person. ~Fr. O'Brien
