ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. †Amen.

HURRICANE PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, our God in the flesh! As You saved Your apostles from perishing in a storm by calming wind and wave on Your command, so now keep us safe and sound during hurricane season. Grant us favorable and benign weather. Protect us from the unpredictable elements of nature. Spare us from storm, flood, fire, illness, injury, disaster and sudden death. Preserve us from all evil and harm, for we, though sinful, are nonetheless the work of Your hands — and You, together with Your Father who has no beginning and Your holy, good and life-giving Spirit, are our God, in whom we live, move and have our being, now and ever, and for ages and ages. †Amen

FAMILY FUNDAMENTALS

"The Eucharist is the very source of Christian marriage. The Eucharistic Sacrifice, in fact, represents Christ's covenant of love with the Church, sealed with His blood on the Cross. In this sacrifice of the New and Eternal Covenant, Christian spouses encounter the source from which their own marriage covenant flows, is interiorly structured and continuously renewed."

St. John Paul II
Familiaris Consortio

We often hear the phrase "marriage is work." What does that really mean? Why is it so often said? I believe what individuals are often referring to is essentially the sacrifice component. The act of sacrifice is an intrinsic part of marriage. The self-denial and the continual dedication to the good of the other is what sustains a marriage. It makes sense that our earthly marriages reflect the Eucharistic Sacrifice. The Eucharistic Sacrifice is His covenant with the Church that cannot be broken. It is a covenant which required an incomprehensible amount of suffering to bear the fruits of heaven. So too our marriages cannot be broken and at times can seem to be riddled with pain. In the end, the Good prevails and Christ makes all things new! The fruits of a holy marriage will far outlast the earthly union.

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Before this past Easter season becomes too much of a distant memory, I wanted to feature the artistry on this year's paschal candle. Typically, we obtain paschal candles that are factory-made, and thankfully, even these are quite beautiful. This year, an artist advertised her skills and I commissioned her to paint this paschal candle uniquely for St. Patrick's.

The paschal candle is made from beeswax for its traditional symbolism of Christ-like purity. The candle is made very large so as to evoke the sight of a pillar of light. This reminds us of the one Israelites followed in the darkness through the 40 years in the desert. Of course, Christ is our light, and this is the chant of the deacon as he processes carrying the candle into the church.

The motifs on our paschal candle include an icon of Mary encountering the risen Lord, the alpha, omega, cross and date, the Celtic cross commemorating our Irish heritage. The vine pattern at the top of the candle is filled with details and signs of flourishing life. Interwoven in the vines is a banner displaying the words of the Regina Coeli, the traditional Easter hymn to our Lady.

The paschal candle is the light of Christ beckoning all people toward the Church. Through the year, the Paschal candle stands near the baptismal font guiding the unbaptized toward the womb of the Church and reminding us all of the graces we have received in our own baptism, when Christ enlightened our soul.

~Fr. O'Brien
