2022 PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY CRUSADE

Saturday, October 15, 2022, 12 noon at St. Patrick's

Announcing this Year's Fatima Commemoration

PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY CRUSADE

America is at a historic crossroad. God is more offended than ever as people ignore Our Lady's maternal request to "stop offending God." As a result, America is suffering from a pandemic, rioting, looting, and murder, as well as moral and societal collapse. It is urgent that we heed Our Lady's request and stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. That's why we're doing the Public Square Rosary Crusade.

In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort said: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

†Amen.

SHOUT YOUR ADOPTION

As far back as I can remember, a book titled The Day We Got You was on my nightstand, and occasionally, my parents and I would read it before bedtime. Then they'd tell me the story of how they got the call and were so incredibly happy to find out they had a baby! It was the day before my father's birthday, and he'd tell me how exhausted they were from staying up all night with me, but how I was still the best birthday present he could have asked for.

Eventually, I wanted to look at the adoption process from a different perspective and started working for an adoption agency. I've gotten to see behind the scenes of the adoption process. It was so rewarding, meeting potential adoptive parents, and later seeing them with the most adorable little baby in their arms and the biggest smiles on their faces!

As I've grown older, I've started to think more about my birth mother. One year, when I was probably 16 or 17, around the time of my birthday, I finally realized that my birth mother didn't give me up because she didn't love me but because she loved me enough to give me a better life. I have had a wonderful life with wonderful parents, and it was her sacrifice that made it possible. I hope she knows how grateful I am.

HURRICANE PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, our God in the flesh! As You saved Your apostles from perishing in a storm by calming wind and wave on Your command, so now keep us safe and sound during hurricane season. Grant us favorable and benign weather. Protect us from the unpredictable elements of nature. Spare us from storm, flood, fire, illness, injury, disaster and sudden death. Preserve us from all evil and harm, for we, though sinful, are nonetheless the work of Your hands, and You, together with Your Father who has no beginning and Your holy, good and life-giving Spirit, are our God, in whom we live, move and have our being, now and ever, and for ages and ages. †Amen

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Deepening and perfecting our personal life of prayer is a task not only for the ordained and consecrated, but for all the faithful! Whether your prayer life has maintained a certain routine for many years, or if you are only just finding what works, the time is always right to ask God for new blessings and graces in prayer. The prayer of meditation is a uniquely rich way of drawing near to the Lord, surrendering our heart to Him, and listening for His promptings and inspirations. Last week, I shared some thoughts on the facets of meditation from The Secret of Sanctity. Inevitably, the one who attempts to meditate will encounter the obstacle of distraction.

Distraction might first be experienced as a cause of discouragement. It might make us feel that our prayer is a waste of time or a disappointment to God. But to concede to such thoughts would be forgetful of God's omnipotent power to redeem—He makes all things a source of good. The following summarizes the contribution of Fr. P. de Gonnellieu, S.J., regarding approaches to address distraction.

As soon as we detect a distraction, say, "O my God! All to Thee, all for Thee, all before Thee." Once we do so, there is no need to reflect on the distraction any longer. Trying to discover the reason behind the distraction, the meaning of it, or how to prevent it in the future is of no use. Let those considerations fade before the fact that your prayer has brought you into the presence of God. If the distractions persist even after attempting the above, then we can be consoled and motivated by the fact that enduring the wearisome thoughts of distraction and persevering in our fidelity to prayer time is itself valuable in God's eyes.

If distraction invades each moment and turns prayer into a battle, recall that by justice we are not owed prayer's consolations, but it is right for us to submit to our sufferings before God. Moreover, in Christ, our sufferings before God are not only just, they are salutary! Fr. de Gonnellieu writes, "Let yourself be crucified by all the wanderings of your mind and by all the vexations of your heart. Be convinced that, in your present state, God only asks you to suffer with patience, humility, and resignation before Him." Just as Christ demonstrated passive acceptance of our Father's will during His Passion, so too can we find companionship with Him as we persevere in the sufferings caused by distraction. Likewise, we should feel the hope that Christ won thereby: bringing abundant graces in ways beyond our comprehension!

Accepting the redeeming power of distraction sets the stage for us to see them defeated and to become freed from them. At such a point, we can engage the following strategies to war against them more effectively: remind yourself that the divine content of meditation is altogether more significant than the menial things which distract us. The sun of God's love cannot be out-shined by the momentary spark of our worry! Stirring up pious affections and enkindling more ardent resolutions can overpower distraction. Finally, we must hold firm to the conviction that meditation is always useful in God's hands, even if we feel it has been distracted or fruitless. To remind us that meditation is always fruitful, Fr. de Gonnellieu concludes, "...it is very certain that to endure our miseries humbly before God is to make a good meditation." ~Fr. O'Brien
