NEW PARISH STUDY ON PHILOSOPHY AND CATHOLICISM

Beginning February 1st, our parish will offer a study group focusing on philosophy. It will begin at 7 p.m. in the parish rectory and meet each Wednesday. The subject of this study will be the way that philosophy can help us to understand and defend the faith of the Church. Such a topic is important in understanding the fundamentals of the faith and defending it against newer, more fashionable ideas which may disagree with or oppose the faith in the contemporary world. All are welcome! Please call the parish office for more information.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

Volunteer Receptionists: Come help for one 1/2 or full day a week or a month! We could really use someone who is great answering the phones on Wednesday's, Thursday's and Friday's. We'd love to get you on the schedule. Please contact parish office at 504-525-4413 if you can help out.

If you would like to receive future electronic communications, please send your email address to: stpatrick@arch-no.org

GIVING MADE EASY!

Please prayerfully consider eGiving as a way to faithfully support St. Patrick's Church and St. John the Baptist Church. Our new online giving platform is a safe and secure way that will allow you to support the operating needs and/or restoration needs of each parish as well as order Masses and Candles, support the Music Program and donate to the Poor Box. You can find the ParishSoft eGiving portal in the donate section of our website or scan the QR Code with your smartphone.

We are asking all who have set up recurring online giving donations through the old portal to switch to the new method. Call Jennifer at 504-525-4413 if you have any questions or need assistance to stop payment through Stripe or PayPal.

Please join in St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Sub Tuum Praesidium

We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

The three Sundays prior to Ash Wednesday form a transition period between two liturgical seasons. Now that our celebrations of Christmas have finished, we are directed now toward Lent, our all-important preparation for the Feast of Feasts, Easter. By the year 541, these three weeks prior to Lent were known collectively as Septuagesima, a tradition retained in the classical calendar of Roman rite (1962). Each of the three Sundays has its proper name: Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima.

The season of Lent is a 40 day preparation for Easter. The number 40 recalls many biblical facts such as the 40 years the Israelites wandered the desert, and the 40 days our Lord fasted. In most western languages, the name of Lent derives from the number 40 such as the Latin "Quadragesima," the French "Carême," or the Spanish "Cuaresma." The word Septuagesima refers to the number 70, and evokes memories of Israel's exile from Jerusalem for 70 years during the Babylonian exile (605—538 B.C.). While the counting of days is not exactly 70 days before Easter, Septuagesima Sunday gives us the chance to mourn the many times that mankind has fallen from grace and lost God's favor.

Septuagesima is observed as a time of transition to acclimate our hearts into Lent. For that reason some of Lent's austerities are already observed while others are not. For example, in the liturgy, we abstain from the Gloria and the Alleluia. We also begin the fast visually by not using flowers on the altar and violet vestments are worn. However, other rigors are not yet observed. There is no requirement of fasting or abstinence during Septuagesima. Dom Guéranger reflects on the good fruits to be expected from a faithful observance of Septuagesima, "We have now a clearer knowledge of the justice and holiness of God, and of the dangers that await an impenitent soul; and, that our repentance might be earnest and lasting, we have bade farewell to the vain joys and baubles of the world. Our pride has been humbled by the prophecy, that these bodies would soon be like the ashes that wrote the memento of death upon our foreheads."

~ Fr. O'Brien

We say farewell to Paige Saleun as our Office manager and wish her well in her new career path. We are delighted that she will continue as our Wedding Coordinator.

We welcome Karen Butler as our new Office Manager. Although Karen has only been here for a few days, its obvious that she will be a real asset to the St. Patrick's office! We invite you to stop by the office and introduce yourself and welcome her to our family.
