SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

From On The Passion of Christ by Thomas 'A Kempis

On the sale of Jesus by the traitor Judas

"How great is your patience, most gentle Jesus and how great my impatience!

"Alas, how poorly I tolerate a brother when he has said or done something against me. But you, for so long a time and without complaint, have endured your disciple Judas, who would soon sell and betray you, while I, for a paltry insult, quickly yield to anger and think of various ways of vindicating myself or of offering excuses. Where then is my patience where is my meekness?

"Help me, good Jesus, and instill the virtue of your meekness in my heart in greater abundance, for without your inspiration and special grace I cannot enjoy peace of soul amid this life's many vexations."

LENTEN FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. This penance includes forgoing meat from warm blooded animals and animal products the contain or confer the flavor of meat.

The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection
