The image shows the musical notation for the final antiphon 'Salve Regina'. It consists of ten staves of music, each with a vocal line and a corresponding Latin text line. The notation is in a simple, square-note style with a single melodic line per staff. The text is written in a Gothic-style font. The first staff begins with a 'V' and a large 'S' for 'Salve'. The text continues across the staves, ending with 'O pi- a: O dulcis Virgo Ma- rí- a.' There are double bar lines at the end of several staves, indicating the end of phrases.
