SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

On this first Sunday of Advent, I pray that you and your family will experience the graces of this season of preparation for our Lord's arrival. Advent begins with the chant "Ad Te levavi," it is the song which expresses our soul's desire to be near God. All the while, we cannot forget God's desire to be with us surpasses the aspirations of our hearts. Evidence for this reaches its peak as Advent gives way to the joy Christ's birth. Beware! Advent will feel short this year since Christmas is the day after the fourth Sunday of Advent. All the more reason to start our preparations prayerfully and intentionally.

In addition to our spiritual preparations, allow me again to invite you to participate in St. Patrick's Advent Appeal and St. John's Annual Appeal. Because of the surplus of generosity toward this year's iGiveCatholic initiative, I'll be directing the extra funds to our $100,000 Advent Appeal goal. Please see my letter explaining the needs our churches face at this time. ~Fr. O'Brien
