isten, glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD does valiantly! The right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD does valiantly!"

I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD.

The LORD has chastened me sorely, but he has not given me over to death.

Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.

This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it.

I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

This is the LORD'S doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day which the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Save us, we beg you, O LORD! O LORD, we beg you, give us success!

~from Psalm 118~

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

Palm Sunday inaugurates Holy Week, the most sacred time of our liturgical year. The goal of our Lenten penances aims toward a fruitful participation in the very mysteries celebrated during our Holy Week liturgies. If you take Lent seriously (as we all should), we must take Holy Week seriously!

Attending the liturgies of the Sacred Triduum allows us to experience with the whole Church, the events of our salvation. Holy Thursday is celebrated at 6:30 p.m. with the Mass of the Lord's Supper. This solemn celebration commemorated the institution of the priesthood, and our Lord's arrest with a Eucharistic procession to the altar of repose.

On Good Friday (3 p.m.) the Church's prayer is substantially different, the sacrifice of the Mass is not offered, but rather, the Passion is chanted and the Church offers her solemn intercessions before allowing the faithful to venerate the Lord's cross and receive Him in Holy Communion.

Holy Saturday bring us to silent contemplation of the dead Christ, then climaxes with the Great Easter Vigil at 8 p.m. There, we recount salvation history, baptize our catechumen, celebrate the Sacraments of initiation for our converts and begin the rejoicing of the Easter Season.

Easter Sunday is our feast of feasts, the font of our hope! Please notice the special Mass schedule. To foster our joy and aid our worship, we will hear Mozart's "Sparrow" Mass at the 9 a.m., and 11 a.m. Masses.
